

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK
PUBLIC AFFAIRS BROADCASTS
DECEMBER 1999 - p. 1 of 6

FACE THE NATION

- 12/05/99 1) Collapse of negotiations at the World Trade Organization meeting in Seattle
 a) John Sweeney, President of the AFL-CIO talks about whether any progress was made
 b) Secretary of Commerce William Daley gives the Clinton Administration viewpoint
 c) the issue of whether the U.S. can dictate to other countries how they can treat their workers
 2) Roundtable discussion about:
 a) the Republican debate in New Hampshire: impact on Campaign 2000
 b) Democratic contenders: Al Gore vs. Bill Bradley
 Guests:
 John Sweeney, AFL-CIO President (1)
 Secretary William Daley, Commerce Department (1)
 Paul Gigot, The Wall Street Journal (2)
- 12/12/99 1) Interview with Secretary of State Madeleine Albright about:
 a) a security advisory to Americans traveling overseas during the holiday period
 b) the upcoming peace talks between Israel and Syria
 c) the Russian listening device found in the State Department/possible security leaks
 d) fate of a Cuban boy whose mother drowned while seeking refuge in the U.S.
 e) U.S. relations with Russia: the issue of Chechnya
 2) Interview with Harold Ickes about Hillary Clinton's Senatorial campaign
 Guests:
 Madeleine Albright, Secretary of State (1)
 Harold Ickes, Hillary Clinton Adviser (2)
- 12/19/99 1) Interview with Samuel 'Sandy' Berger about:
 a) threat of terrorist activity: State Department advisory to Americans traveling abroad/the arrest in Seattle of an individual entering the U.S. with explosive material
 b) the Russian offensive against Chechnya
 c) UN vote to renew Iraqi weapons inspections
 d) peace talks between Syria and Israel
 2) Campaign 2000: candidates' profession of religious faith: suspicion of hypocrisy/religious resurgence in the U.S.
 Guests:
 Samuel 'Sandy' Berger, National Security Adviser (1)
 Rabbi Marc Gellman, religious leader (2)
 Monsignor Thomas Hartman, religious leader (2)
- 12/26/99 Anticipating the millennium:
 1) Ethical challenges to be faced by American society in the next century/filling the need for capable leaders
 2) Impact of the Internet: change in society for good or bad
 3) The role of science: genetic engineering; the argument over creationism vs. evolution
 4) The role of art: new forms of creativity
 5) Predictions for the new century
 Guests:
 Tom Wolfe, author
 Stephen Jay Gould, biologist
 Esther Dyson, Internet expert
 Stephen Carter, ethicist

60 MINUTES

- 12/05/99 "Miranda"- controversy has arisen over whether the U.S. Supreme Court should re-examine the Miranda Act, a 1966 ruling under which suspects in a criminal case must be informed of their rights. Paul Cassell, law Professor at the University of Utah claims that the Miranda Act has enabled criminals to go free, while proponents say that it keeps poor people from being railroaded. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg)
"Colombia's Andres Pastrana"- an interview with President Andres Pastrana of Colombia who has asked the U.S. for $3 billion in aid to help his army stop the flow of illegal drugs, a large portion of which are destined for American consumers. Pastrana's problem is complex because, to achieve his goal, he must first reconcile two warring factions in his country...left wing guerrillas and right wing death squads. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Robert Anderson)
"President Gore?"- an interview with Vice President Al Gore about his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shari Finkelstein)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Happy New Year" - Andy's disinterest in the millennium
- 12/12/99 "Don't Ask, Don't Tell"- the recent murder of Barry Winchell, a gay soldier, is driving home a point that, 'don't ask, don't tell,' the U.S. military's policy regarding homosexual servicemen, is a failure. Includes interviews with Lt. Col. Robert Maginnes who helped write the policy and now admits that it is unfair; and Army Reserve Lt. Steve May, a homosexual who is also a state representative in Arizona. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutzky)
"Rumpole Of The Bailey"- a profile of the eccentric, prolific author John Mortimer, whose series of novels about a British barrister named Rumpole have been made into a public television series. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
"Agent Orange"- currently a Canadian team of scientists called the Hatfield Group, is working with Vietnamese doctors to determine whether Agent Orange, a defoliant containing the carcinogen Dioxin, used widely by the U.S. during the Vietnam War, is linked to a host of serious illnesses and birth defects, including cancer and spina bifida. Also at issue are the questions of compensation to the victims and the responsibility for a preventative cleanup. (C: Christiane Amanpour -P: Andrew Tkach)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy's Picks"- comparing athletes
- 12/19/99 "The Secrecy Clause"- a report on problems that arise when researchers who find out something negative about a drug cannot make it public because clinical studies, often financed by the drugs' manufacturers, can insert a secrecy clause in the researcher's contract. Includes interviews with Dr. Betty Dong and Dr. Nancy Olivieri, both of whom signed secrecy agreements; and Dr. Drummond Rennie, Deputy Editor of The Journal of American Medicine. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
"Big Chicken"- over the past twenty years the popularity of chicken as part of the American diet has soared. To keep up with the demand the big poultry companies have had to speed up the process of getting the birds to the market. Critics claim that the chicken industry is taking advantage of its workers - who have one of the highest injury rates in the nation. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Scott Bronstein)
"Hello, I'm In Finland"- a report on Finland, considered the world's most technologically advanced country, where more people have cell phones and Internet connections. Includes interviews with: Jorma Oillia, CEO of Nokia, the world's largest producer of mobile phones; John Knutas, a radio journalist and Karen Armstrong, an American anthropologist living in Finland (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Gavshon)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Packaging the Product" - the packaging costs more than the product

60 MINUTES (continued)

12/26/99 "D.U."- D.U. (depleted uranium), a highly effective anti-tank weapon, was first used in combat during the Gulf War. The U.S. Army was aware of serious health risks but did little to protect servicemen who were exposed to the toxic dust that D.U. shells produce on impact. Includes an interview with Bernard Rostker, Undersecretary of the Army. (C: Morley Safer - P: Peter Klein)
"Miracle On 43rd Street"- a followup to "Miracle On 43rd Street" (OAD: 08/03/97), a report about Roseanne Haggerty who was responsible for the renovation of the Times Square Hotel as a supportive housing project for the homeless. The followup consists of an update on some of the hotel's former residents. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Andrew Court, Richard Greenberg)
"Wanted"- in the 1980's Charles Miller was given immunity from prosecution and placed in the witness protection program following his testimony in the trial of Jamaican drug dealers. Today, Miller, charged with drug dealing and a suspect in a murder, is living openly on the island of St. Kitts. C: Ed Bradley - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II)
Andy Rooney Topic " "Christmas Presents" - Andy buys a motor scooter for himself

48 HOURS

12/02/99 PREEMPTION

12/09/99 "Miracles"- a 48 HOURS poll reveals that 70% of Americans believe in miracles. The unexplained phenomenon is viewed through a variety of prisms, including the Catholic Church, the medical community and the supernatural. Broadcast includes reports on: Sean Henderson, a 13-year-old boy suffering from proteus syndrome, a rare disease, who sought a cure at the shrine of Lourdes in France; Katharine Drexel, a Roman Catholic nun who is a candidate for sainthood; Miracle Healing Center and its sister organization, Endeavor Academy, cult-like organizations established by Chuck Anderson, a former realtor who claims to have spiritual powers; and Tanya Fisher, an adoptee who was reunited with her biological mother after 27 years. (C: Harold Dow, Bill Lagattuta, Troy Roberts, Susan Spencer - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Mary Noonan Robichaux, Alec Sirken, Josh Yager, Susan Wiggins Moore, Clare Friedland)

12/16/99 "The Class of 2000: Too Much Too Soon"- 48 HOURS focuses on high school seniors who have overcome daunting obstacles to succeed in school and life, including reports on: Cayla Sutton and Brandy Jones, students at South Lenore High School in North Carolina whose homes were destroyed by Hurricane Floyd; Rachel Hubnik of Plano, Texas who was able to overcome drug addiction; Jennifer Bell, a 17-year-old who suffered a brain hemorrhage and remained in a coma for 40 days; Mai Lin Schultz, who, with her mother, was a victim of a mudslide in Rio Nido, California; and Jackie Steinmetz, a Fort Worth, Texas teenager who was wounded when a gunman opened fire during a youth rally at a Baptist church. (C: Peter Van Sant, Troy Roberts, Harold Dow, Bill Lagattuta, Sharyl Attkisson - Sr. P: Reid Collins Jr. - P: Jay Young, Tanya Simon, Keith Greenberg, Gordon Rothman, Sophia M. Kim)

48 HOURS (continued)

- 12/23/99 "Binge"- Focuses on the alarming number of underage Americans who are finding ways to drink alcohol and the increase of alcohol-related deaths. Includes reports on: binge drinking on college campuses; teenagers who cross the border into Mexico where they can drink legally at 18; Minneapolis' Sobriety High School, a special school with a program geared to helping teenage alcoholics stay sober; the impact of alcohol advertising on teenagers and the effort to get the message across that underage drinking is dangerous; drunk driving as the cause of fatal auto accidents. (C: Erin Moriarty, Troy Roberts, Susan Spencer, Bill Lagattuta, Harold Dow - Sr. P: Reid Collins, Jr. - P: Diane M. Ronnau, Sophia M. Kim, Deirdre Cohen, Clare Friedland, Alec Sirken) (OAD: 01/14/98)
- 12/30/99 "On The Brink"- a look at the frenzy surrounding the end of the century including a report from Fiji, where the new millennium will make landfall first, and an overview of: medical and technological advancements and what they will portend for the new century; highlights from each war of the twentieth century; the negative aspects of computer and Internet technology, including identity theft; major crimes of the twentieth century; a comparison of past predictions with what actually happened; U.S. Presidents of the 20th century; and fashions of the 21st century, including wearable computers. (C: Bill Lagattuta, Mike Wallace, Richard Schlesinger, Bill Geist, Jerry Bowen, Bernard Goldberg, Andy Rooney, Susan Spencer, Peter Van Sant - Sr. P: Peter Schweitzer)

60 MINUTES II

- 12/07/99 "Torture In Area 2"- a report on allegations that Commander John Burge and some of the police officers in Chicago's (police district) Area 2, used torture to elicit confessions from suspects. Includes interviews with: attorney Flint Taylor; Dr. Robert Kirschner, a pathologist at the University of Chicago; and Richard Devine, Illinois state attorney. (C: Carol Marin - P: Don Moseley)
- "Reluctant Star"- an interview with Oscar-winning actress Jodie Foster about her life, including John Hinckley's obsession with her that led to his assassination attempt on President Ronald Reagan, her career and single motherhood. (C: Charlie Rose - P: Rob Wallace)
- "Back To My Lai"- a followup to "Back to My Lai" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 03/29/98), interviews with Hugh Thompson and Larry Colburn, members of an American helicopter crew, recently awarded medals for their efforts to save civilians during the My Lai massacre. The followup consists of an interview with Thompson who, in 1970, was called to testify before a Congressional Committee and made to feel like a traitor. Thirty years later, the military establishment, has invited Thompson to give lectures on military ethics, including details on My Lai. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Tom Anderson)
- Update: "Bombing Vieques" - OAD: 10/19/99

60 MINUTES II (continued)

- 12/14/99 "The New Anarchists"- a report on a violent, mask-wearing group of anti-government, anti-corporation protesters from Eugene, Oregon who came to Seattle, Washington with the sole purpose of disrupting the World Trade Organization meetings taking place there. Includes interviews with: former Seattle Police Chief Norm Stamper; Eugene Police Captain Thad Buchanan; Ream, one of the anarchists; and John Zerzan, who acts as a philosophical guide for the protesters. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy)
- "Getting Away With Genocide" - Part I- focuses on the killings by the Khmer Rouge in Cambodia, between 1975 and 1979, of 1.7 million people. Featured in the report are interviews with Seng Ty, a middle school guidance counselor; and Arn Chorn Pond, a social worker and musician. Both are American citizens who returned to Cambodia and spoke about their experiences during the slaughter. (C: Bob Simon - P: Steven Glauber, Christopher Martin)
- "Getting Away With Genocide" - Part II- continuation of the report on genocide in Cambodia including interviews with: Youk Chhang, a Dallas investigator who lost much of his family before escaping from Cambodia and has now returned to Phnom Penh in search of criminal evidence; and State Department Ambassador David Scheffer. Both are pressing for an international tribunal. (C: Bob Simon - P: Steven Glauber, Christopher Martin)
- "Uncommon Sense"- why people pray (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 12/21/99 "Apocalypse"- a report on the large number of Christian pilgrims who have journeyed to Israel for the millennium, claiming that it will presage the return of the Messiah and the end of the world. Includes an interview with Schlomo Ben-Ami, Israel's Minister of Interior Security, who talks about dealing with legitimate pilgrims as well as lunatic fringe groups. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum)
- "McCain"- an interview with Presidential candidate Sen. John McCain (R., Arizona). (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
- "Home Movies"- a profile of film writer/director Barry Levinson. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Linda Martin)
- "Uncommon Sense"- living up to the teachings of Christ (C: Jimmy Tingle)
- 12/28/99 "Countdown To 2000" (President Clinton) - an interview with President Clinton about what he feels is in store for the country in the next century, focusing on scientific and medical advances and America's role as a world power. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin)
- "Countdown To 2000" (Jeff Bezos)- a followup to "Nerd Of The Amazon" (OAD: 02/03/99), a profile of Jeff Bezos, founder of Amazon.com, the world's largest bookstore. The followup consists of an interview with Bezos, recently named Time magazine's Man of the Year, about his company's growth and changes in his own lifestyle. (C: Bob Simon - P: Shawn Efran)
- "Krasnoyarsk-26: Secret City"- a report on a secret city in a remote part of Siberia where Russian workers living in complete isolation produce plutonium to go into nuclear weapons. (OAD: 01/13/99). Includes an update on the current status of the workers and the U.S.-financed conversion of the facility for peacetime purposes. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)
- "Uncommon Sense"- Jimmy Tingle talks about his vision of the next century with an emphasis on the economy. (C: Jimmy Tingle)

CBS NEWS SPECIALS

12/27/99 "CBS News/Time 100 Person of the Century"- a "Countdown to 2000" broadcast revealing CBS News and Time magazine's choice of the person who most shaped the 20th century, from a list of the 100 influential persons, now narrowed to just five: Franklin D. Roosevelt; Martin Luther King, Jr.; Albert Einstein; Adolf Hitler and Mohandis Gandhi. The broadcast features expert opinions from scientists, historians and one of the century's most prominent newsmen -- Walter Cronkite. The revelation of Albert Einstein as Person of the Century is revealed during Dan Rather's interview with Time managing editor Walter Isaacson and is followed by a look back at what future generations will remember about the 20th Century. (C: Dan Rather, Mike Wallace, Lesley Stahl, Morley Safer, Ed Bradley - P: Lee Cohen)

CBS RELIGIOUS SPECIALS

12/12/99 "Thoughts At The Millennium"- an interfaith religious special looking ahead to the 21st century with a panel of experts who speak as Christians, Jews and Muslims about the new Millennium in light of the one that is ending. Among the various topics covered are: religious prejudices and the harm and pain they can cause; changes in political life; wars, peace making; ecumenism; human spiritual emptiness; ecology; the role of women; a Jubilee Year attempt to forgive the debts of the poorest nations;; and the deep spiritual faith needed to help mankind face the challenges of a safer life for all the people sharing one planet. The topics are illustrated with both recent and archival footage and representative art. (E.P.: John P. Blessington - P: Ted Holmes)

12/24/99 "An American Christmas"- a millennium-themed religious special illustrating, through a variety of ethnic, cultural, regional and liturgical presentations, the many ways Christmas is celebrated in North America at the end of the 20th century. The program brings together almost a dozen different churches, from California to New York and from Illinois to Tennessee. The hosts, actors Joe Morton and Hayden Panettiere, are joined by singer Tim Shew and dramatic performers Kim and Reggie Harris and features a 250-member musical ensemble directed by Jeffrey Radford of the Trinity United Church of Christ in Chicago. (E.P.: John P. Blessington)

* * * *